ARBITRATORS' PERSPECTIVES MASTERCLASS SERIES CONSTRUCTION CONTRACT INTERPRETATION --- The Complete Picture

Disputes in construction contracts are often rooted come from different interpretation of the terms and their operation in practice. From eminent arbitrators' perspectives, through review of decided cases and key principles, this series of masterclasses offers highly practical and insightful training, focusing on common contractual issues facing construction professionals every day that bring about contractual disputes.

The newly launched Arbitrators' Perspectives on Construction Contract Interpretation Masterclass Series – The Complete Picture aims at providing a solid base for the proper understanding of how to address construction contract disputes with a view to enhance the productive administration of construction projects. It is delivered by one of the most eminent arbitrators, Arbitrator Professor Phillip Yang, the Honorary Chairman of the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre (HKIAC).

Professor Philip Yang has been a full-time arbitrator for well over 30 years, mainly in international trade, shipping and commercial disputes. He has published/issued over 550 arbitration awards as a sole or co-arbitrator. He is an Adjunct Professor teaching arbitration law and practice in the City University of Hong Kong. Mr. Yang is the Deputy Chairman of the BIMCO Documentary Committee, the Honorary Chairman of the HKIAC, the Past President of the APRAG, and the past Hong Kong Representative of ICC International Court of Arbitration.
